Students are advised to regularly check the official RTU website and remain in contact with their respective colleges regarding the schedule for online examination form submission. Affiliated institutions/colleges must proactively contact all eligible candidates, prepare a comprehensive database, and ensure all examination forms be submitted within the prescribed timelines as per the schedule notified by RTU time to time for the session 2026-27. The college/institution and the candidate concerned shall be held responsible for any lapse or failure to submit forms on time.

This Mercy Chance is the final opportunity. Candidates must thoroughly verify their backlog status before submitting forms. Candidates must also ensure that their internal/midterm marks in backlog subjects meet passing requirements. If internal/midterm marks are insufficient, candidates must apply for and appear in the Improvement Examination for those subjects along with the End-Term/External Examinations. For further queries or clarifications, candidates may contact their respective college administration or the University Examination Section,

This order bears the approval of the Vice-Chancellor.
